Two Christmas Bargains in black Caracul Coats

The present cold weather, also the early approach of Christmas, makes the purchase of a caracul coat most timely, whether you intend it for personal wear or as a gift to someone. The two specials below are the best values in caracul coats ever given in El Paso.

$25.00 Coats $17.85
Full length black caracul coats, guaranteed satin lined, a regular $25.00 coat; offered the balance of the week at $17.85

$32.50 Coats $24.85
Full length black caracul coats representing the highest type of this class of coat. Made of finest quality silky caracul and lined throughout with guaranteed satin. All the new styles in collars are shown, turnback cuffs, and big buttons. A regular $32.50 coat; offered the balance of the week at $24.85

Suits Worth to $34.50 at $16.85

Made in chevots, fine French suitings and mixtures. Coats are lined with guaranteed silk serge, satin or messaline. Every suit style of the season is included—both the plainly tailored models and the more elaborate braided, velvet or Persian trimmed suits. Black, navy blue, gray, tan, brown, green and other colors are shown. Suits worth up to $34.50—$16.85 one price this week

Dresses Worth $23.50 to $25.00 at $14.85

These are dresses for street, afternoon and informal evening affairs. Made of broadcloths, serges, cashmeres, voiles, silks and chiffons. Long and short sleeved styles, high and low neck, are shown, many have rich lace yokes and sleeves, many are heavily braided and button-trimmed. Dresses worth from $23.50 to $25; this week, we give you choice at $14.85

Furs For Christmas

Furs are the gift that is most appreciated by a woman, young girl or child. We are showing a wide range of furs—from the pretty, inexpensive comey to the beautiful Iceland fox. The white and gray furs come in made-up sets but the others are shown in the individual pieces and you make a set to suit yourself. Attractive prices prevail throughout the Fur Section.

Children's Furs

We are discontinuing Children's Goods and want to close out our stock of children's fur sets as quickly as possible. You should certainly buy children's furs now, we are quoting really remarkable price reductions. Look over the display tomorrow—you must not overlook this opportunity to give the little girl the fur set she has set her heart upon.

Headquarters For Holiday Handkerchiefs

We never grow tired of telling you of the unusual values to be secured here in Holiday Handkerchiefs. Every imaginable kind of handkerchief, for every imaginable gift purpose, is to be found here in a little better quality and a little lower price than elsewhere. For the balance of the week we note

One Extra Special in Boxed Handkerchiefs

These are guaranteed pure linen, hand embroidered, and a regular 25c handkerchief. Come 6 in a box, 2 styles in each box. On sale the balance of the week, per box $1.00.

Headquarters For Holiday Hose

Silk Hose as a Christmas gift has long held favor. Many big values are now offered in this section, but for the balance of the week we note

One Extra Special

These are guaranteed pure silk hose, in black, white, brown, blue, reseda and nearly every shade that hose come in. Some are all silk, others have lisle foot and garter top. Extra Special, the balance of the week, pair 95c.

NOTE—All silk hosiery will be put in Christmas boxes.

LA UNION LANDS SOLD BY BAILEY

Wilkins Buys the Crawford Ranch for $15,000; Porcher Buys for $8500.

La Union, N. M., Dec. 14.—Reality is again active in the La Union district. H. H. Bailey has sold the L. M. Crawford ranch containing 170 acres to W. C. Wilkins, of El Paso for $15,000. Pumps will be installed at once and the entire tract put in cultivation.

Julius Porcher, who recently sold his ranch down the valley, has bought 100 acres from P. H. and H. H. Bailey for $8500 and will also improve the tract. J. T. Steele, of Washington state, has bought 12 acres from P. H. and H. H. Bailey for $1500, the best price yet paid for La Union district property. He will put in a pumping plant and will set out a typical Washington apple orchard.

Judge F. W. Parker, of Las Cruces, has also bought 160 acres adjoining his ranch in this district.

GET OPTION FOR A HOTEL SITE

Persons interested in the erection of a hotel have secured an option from Gen. J. L. Bullis on the building now occupied by the Guarantee Shoe company on El Paso street just north of the corner of San Antonio street. An option has already been secured on the Kohlberg property adjacent to this site, and it is probable the hotel will be erected here. The option held by Clark and O'Brien, of San Francisco, Cal., on the Phil Young property, expired Wednesday.

FULTON'S CONDITION IS STILL CONSIDERED SERIOUS

Tom Fulton, of Dripping Springs, Tex., who was brought to the county hospital in El Paso, Tuesday, as a result of wounds sustained from a negro footpad near Ysleta, is resting easily, according to the statement of county hospital officials. The bullet entered Fulton's hip and perforated his intestines. His recovery is doubtful.

JUAREZ HOME ROBBED.

The residence of Felix Robert, in Ciudad Juarez, was robbed Monday night and jewelry and two watches taken. The loss is estimated at about $500. The police have made no arrest.

SYSTEM OF HIGHWAYS OF CEMENT ON CONTINENT.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 14.—Cement highways from the Atlantic to the Pacific coast are proposed in a plan presented to the Colorado conservation commission by John Brisben Walker. The commission unanimously adopted a resolution approving of Mr. Walker's plan after it had been commended by former senator Patterson and others. The resolution asks the legislatures of the 17 other states more immediately interested to petition congress to take action. The proposed highways follow:

From Denver to the Mississippi at St. Louis.
From Denver to the great lakes at Chicago.
From Denver to the gulf at Galveston.
From Denver to the Pacific ocean at Seattle.
From Denver to the Pacific ocean at San Francisco and Los Angeles.

ANOTHER ARREST IN THE

QUADRUPE MISSOURI MURDER. Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 14.—Sam Bailey, a former employee of Mrs. Eme-line Bernhardt, who with her son, George, Thomas Morgan and James Graves, were killed at the Bernhardt farm, 20 miles south of here last week, was arrested last night.

Bailey is held pending investigation. The arrest was made by inspector Boyle of the Kansas City police department, upon information furnished by John Peagle, held as a suspect in the case by the Kansas City, Kan., police. Bailey will be questioned tonight.

Sickly children need WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE. It not only destroys worms, if there be any, but it acts as a strengthening tonic in the stomach and bowels. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by Scott White & Co., 204 Mills street, and Depot Pharmacy.

AMUSEMENTS

CRAWFORD'S TEMPERANCE PLAY

Tonight the last performance of "Ten Nights" will be given. Tomorrow evening the bill will be "The Red Mouse." Friday night as an extra, after the regular play, the amateurs will appear. Sunday is farewell day, and "Three Weeks" will be the bill. The prices are 15c, 25c and 35c.

FREDERICK WARDE COMING.

El Pasoans are promised a real treat next Monday and Tuesday nights when Frederick Warde and company appear at the El Paso theater in "Julius Caesar." Mr. Warde's ability as a Shakespearean reader and scholar needs no praise; it is too well known. His predilection for surrounding himself with a capable cast is as well known as his own ability. Tickets go on sale at the Crawford theater Thursday morning and all real lovers of Shakespeare will doubtless avail themselves of a chance to witness his masterpiece by

A True Reason

Why I can sell Jewelry for less than others.

Having small expense during the year, I do not have to put large profits on my goods during this time of the year to make up for the loss during the dull season.

I make a specialty of solid gold and diamond jewelry and can save you money on that class of goods.
